The training and placement cell of A. M. Reddy Engineering College conducted a three days training programme on “Money management and Digital identity” at our college. This programme was initiated by our principal with a technical speech. The guest speaker provides a brief overview of the training program, highlighting its objectives, key components and importance of digital identity and money management in the contemporary world.

All graduating students attended the program and actively raised numerous questions related to digital technology to the speaker. Engaging discussions occurred as both the speaker and students shared their perspectives throughout the sessions. The event concluded with a vote of thanks expressed by the Training and Placement Officer (TPO).

The training and placement cell of A. M. Reddy Engineering College conducted a three days training programme on “Group discussion and Group presentation” at our college. This programme was initiated by our principal with a technical speech. After the speech, the guest speaker discussed about the importance of skills.

All final year B.Tech students actively participated in the program. Bhavani garu divided the students in to batches. So, it is very helpful for discussion. They raised numerous questions related to critical thinking, engaging in insightful discussions with the speaker. Both the speaker and students shared their perspectives throughout the sessions. The session concluded with a vote of thanks extended by the Training and Placement Officer (T.P.O)

The Training and Placement Cell at A.M. Reddy Engineering College arranged a five-day training program on "Interview Presentation and Job Opportunities". Our principal spearheaded the endeavour, which began with a technical speech. The guest speaker continued to discuss the importance of skills in relation to job chances after his remarks.

The program was attended by all B. Tech final-year students. They actively asked the speaker lot of questions on carrier opportunities and interview presentation. Throughout the session, lively debates erupted as the speaker and students exchanged view points. The program coordinator gave vote of appreciation to wrap up the occasion.
